

"PAJAMA GIRL" STILL IN FAVOR

BY BETTY BROWN

Almost every girl is a "Pajama Girl" these days, for the girls, especially the younger girls, have found out how comfortable are the bifurcated garments and they're wearing them almost to the exclusion of the frilly and beribboned night robes.

There's very little chance for ornamentation on the prim little pajamas, but this season some very pretty ones have been brought out in cotton crepe and in flowered mercerized cotton. The pretty pajamas in which
